TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals: Solidarity in Practice will be a 3-days seminar to explore, showcase and test methods and techniques to translate solidarity in practice within European Solidarity Corps and beyond. The event is coordinated by SALTO European Solidarity Corps (part of the Austrian National Agency) and hosted by the Italian National Agency for Erasmus+ Youth and European Solidarity Corps- Agenzia Italiana per la Gioventù. It is an event organised by the Youth field in the framework of the European Solidarity Corps Programme, but the topic is cross sectoral, therefore applicants from the education and training field are welcome. Are you passionate about fostering solidarity and making a positive impact in your community and your learning environments? Do you have already tested good methods and techniques on how to put solidarity in action? In the 3-day seminar you will get the chance to attend various workshops around solidarity and value based learning and connect the inputs with your reality. Solidarity in Practice aims at sharing the significance of solidarity in addressing societal challenges and effecting positive change. For more information, contact persons and for applying please visit: APPLICATION FOR THE EVENT. Deadline of application: 16 June 2024. Please note that since the applications to this event are taking place in the salto-youth.net website, the information on booked and accepted places appearing below are not updated here. PARTICIPANTS' PROFILE This practical conference is for you if you are active or interested in activities related to solidarity and how to create positive change in your environment and if you are: Representing a volunteering organisation active in European Solidarity Corps or a solidarity project team in European Solidarity Corps or Representing a voluntary organisation looking for new ideas on how to support value based learning or Representing a youth organisation or A youth worker, social worker, trainer, teacher, educator, mentor, coach, projector coordinator, tutor, adult educator, community manager or municipality representative.
