Additional information:

Training FocusThe training will focus on methods to inspire and engage young people from Roma backgrounds in both formal and non-formal education, as well as in social life. This goal will be achieved through a four-day cross-sectoral training event, which will provide in-depth insight into the tools and opportunities offered by the Erasmus+ Programme and the European Solidarity Corps (ESC). The aim is to support the effective inclusion of Roma communities and to equip participants with practical skills for facilitating integration. The training is targeted at: Youth organisations; Organisations working with people with fewer opportunities; Vocational schools and high schools; Informal youth groups.
