TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:

Promoting European values and fostering active participation is more important than ever. The Erasmus+ National Agency Higher Education Germany (DE01) is hosting a three-day transnational conference under the Erasmus+ Programme with the focus on the horizontal priority of participation. The conference is part of the LTA PEACE+ project, explicitly addressing the higher education sector and student initiatives and or ambassador programmes. This thematic conference will provide a networking platform to exchange good practices and transferable experiences of the different initiatives. During various workshop sessions, participants will have the opportunity to discuss and share ideas. Between the workshops, the programme will be enriched by lectures of experts of various fields (e.g. communication). It will bring together participants from all over Europe. Participants will be selected in such a way that the balance of representatives from student initiatives as well as institutional and/or NA staff is ensured, taking into account the fact that the organization of such initiatives differs among European countries. The main aim is to strengthen (student) programmes and initiatives, as well as ambassador programmes, that promote European values such as intercultural understanding and exchange, diversity, and civic engagement. The conference programme will be designed to provide participants with opportunities to connect, share experiences and learn more about best practices and challenges of other initiatives. Another focus will be on how to bundle efforts and synergies amongst the different programmes as well as on strengthening the visibility and impact of such programmes.

Expected results: Gathering practical findings and gaining knowledge in sharing European values via student engagement: The aim is that participants return back home with a backpack filled with findings, good practices, and ideas that help realize their idea of promoting European values. Bringing together people with the same spirit in order to enrich personal networks, e.g. working together in the future or giving advice on daily struggles. Developing ideas for a new activity back home in order to promote European values. Realizing a small communication activity, worked out together with other participants during one of the workshop sessions.

Additional information:

The TCA event will start on November 27th at 9.00 am with a welcome coffee and the registration at the event venue Design Offices Hammerbrook in Hamburg. DE01 will cover the accommodation and catering for all participants
