TCA DESCRIPTION

| | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| Themes and goals: | The main objective of the seminar is to facilitate new contacts and partnerships among VET institutions and organisations offering education and training to learners with fewer opportunities and staff working with this target group. Focus will be on paving the way for opportunities in VET Mobility for learners as well as for staff. The group includes learners who for various reasons have difficulty attending/completing main stream VET programmes due to disability, educational/cognitive, psychological challenges, socioeconomic issues and health problems. This includes also learners requiring special attention and counselling to prepare for ordinary VET. The seminar aims to attract and engage primarily representatives from organisations with either no Erasmus+ experience or no experience involving students with fewer opportunities in international activities. The activities will include: Getting acquainted Introduction to Group Mobility - a new and inclusive activity within Erasmus+ VET Discussing benefits and challenges of mobility for learners fewer opportunities Pitching and presentations of project ideas Dating and dialogue with potential partners facilitated by a professional Social activities |
| Expected results: | To engage institutions offering training to this target group. |
