TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:

This seminar focuses on partner finding and creating strong partnerships within Erasmus+, for organisations working in formal adult education.The main goal is to help participants finding the right partners and building strong, long-lasting collaborations for both KA1 and KA2 projects. The seminar will give practical insights into what makes a good partnership, how to align expectations, and how to work together effectively.Participants will also learn more about Erasmus+ priorities and how to develop solid project ideas. Through workshops, examples from experienced beneficiaries, and networking activities, they will have the chance to exchange ideas and start new collaborations.A visit to VUC Roskilde, an adult education institution that has been active in Erasmus+ for several years, will provide a concrete example of how Erasmus+ projects can be integrated into everyday practice.Overall, the seminar aims to give participants useful tools, inspiration, and connections to create strong and successful Erasmus+ partnerships.

Expected results:

The expected learning outcome of the seminar is the following: Participants will gain insight into the Danish adult education system.Participants will learn about building partnerships in an Erasmus+ context.Participants will have the opportunity to find partners for future projects and pitch their own ideas.Participants will experience a formal Danish Adult Education Centre in practice.Participants will connect with like-minded peers from across Europe.
