TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals: School authorities play a key role in Erasmus+, as they have a unique opportunity to develop new solutions in partnership with similar organisations in other countries, and ensure that these solutions are anchored, scaled and integrated into the education systems. This ensures long-term impact for the benefit of both pupils, school staff and the overarching school authorities. By engaging in partnerships for cooperation, school authorities can amplify impact, strengthen their strategic capacity and deliver tangible improvements for schools, teachers and students across Europe. If you are curious about the opportunities in Partnerships for school development, this seminar will help you get started. During the seminar you will learn about Partnerships for School Development. We will help you to discover the opportunities in this project type and to structure your project idea into a good project design. You will also have plenty of opportunities to meet new partners and work on project ideas together. You do not need to have a clear project idea beforehand. During the seminar, you will be inspired to explore how your organisation can benefit from working with Partnerships for School Development, and how these projects can become a tool to strengthen both your everyday quality development and your work on internationalisation. The seminar will be arranged by the National Agencies from Denmark, Norway, Iceland, Sweden and Finland.

Expected results: After participating in this seminar, you will have an increased understanding of

Partnerships for School Development and you will be prepared to start working on a project idea and a project proposal that is anchored in the needs of your organisation and your partner organisations and that will result in a long-term impact for the benefit of your organisation and the schools you represent

Additional information:

Please note that applications are only accepted from school authorities and school coordination bodies. If you are unsure about your eligibility to apply, please contact your national agency beforehand. The seminar will be in English and the working methods will be collaborative, so you should speak English well enough to participate actively in professional discussions. We expect you to be present and active throughout the full programme.
