TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	The overall idea of the contact seminar is to find partners with similar interests and develop ideas for the new KA2 cooperation partnerships on the topic of greening and sustainability. The goal is raising awareness about environmentally friendly choices in adult education. It is important to help adult educators and learners to become more aware how their choices in their personal and professional activities can help to manage their local environments in a sustainable way. The seminar will also give an opportunity to share experience and discover new approaches in the adult education field on how to implement with the special focus on creating cross sectoral and transversal collaborations between ADU institutions interested in greening. The seminar is aimed to AE sector. Participants can be all adult education institutions who are interested in making green and sustainable choices in their institutions and wish to find cooperation partners with similar interests. The contact seminar will be conducted in online-format.
Expected results:	The expected results: New good quality Erasmus+ KA2 project ideas/proposals to the next 2023 selection rounds. More attention to greening and sustainability in future KA2 cooperation projects. Participants are more aware how to make sustainable choices in their institutions.
Additional information:	The contact seminar will be conducted in online-format.
