Themes and goals:	The contact seminar aims to bring together language teachers and school staff to discuss language teaching and learning and new ideas, methodological and practical tools on how to best support learners in a multilingual (and multicultural) classroom. The idea of the contact seminar is to create a safe place for institutions with similar interests and develop ideas for the new cooperation partnerships on the issue of multilingual/multicultural classroom. The seminar will also give an opportunity to share experience and discover new approaches in the field. Seminar will be held at face-to-face format. Website of the event: https://www.erasmusplus-language-contactseminar-estonia.org/ The event programme is preliminary, the organizers reserve the right to make changes to it.
Expected results:	Expected results: New good quality Erasmus+ KA2 project ideas/proposals to the next 2023 and 2024 selection rounds. We expect all participating organisations have found at least one possible cooperation partner for future cooperation project(s). New ideas about multilingual/multicultural classroom Shared experiences
Additional information:	Ability to speak different languages is a key to communication and social inclusion. Languages are very closely linked to the development of intercultural competences, critical thinking, social and civic engagement. During the last decades the classrooms in Europe have become more multilingual and more multicultural. Cross-border mobility, refugee-crises and pandemics have all contributed to creating a new linguistic challenges in language learning and -teaching. It is important to see how we can reach a comprehensive approach to language teaching and learning already in early ages and include all learners in the classroom. Language learning and -teaching is a topic where there's a lot to gain from transnational cooperation. Common methods, effective and innovative methods can be created, implemented and shared in cooperation. Practical information: The Estonian NA will cover accommodation for 3 nights in Hestia Hotel Europe (25.04, 26.04 and 27.04). Extra nights must be paid separately by participant. The Estonian NA will cover all meals and programme costs during the event. We expect 60 participants, max 3 from every country.
