TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals: Are you looking for Adult Education partners for your Erasmus+ Cooperation or Small-Scale Partnership KA2 projects? Are you seeking partners for Adult Educator or Adult Learner KA1 Mobility projects? Would you like to increase your organisation's visibility among international networks? EPALE - a virtual space for connection and sharing stories for Adult Educators is an introductory online training over three half days. It will support you to use EPALE, the Electronic Platform for Adult Learning in Europe, for exploring, sharing and collaborating on Adult Ed and VET Erasmus+ projects. EPALE platform is a European, multilingual, open membership community of adult learning professionals, including adult educators and trainers, guidance and support staff, researchers and academics, and policymakers.

Expected results: Objectives: Gain first-hand experience of using the EPALE platform. Explore EPALE as a tool of sharing about your projects and organizations. Learn about ways of staying connected through EPALE with other E+. Engage in practical application of the learning. Build international connections. The TCA will be facilitated on the ZOOM platform using participatory and creative methods to: Inspire – reading blogs and stories to get ideas for possible projects. Connect – joining groups on topics of relevance. Partner – using the partner search function. Collaborate – working together with partners on the Erasmus+ Spaces. Contribute – write a blog, comment on existing posts, etc. Engage – in sharing experiences and learning from each other. Pre-event activity – in the group/ workspace on EPALE share a story about yourself and your engagement and practice with ERASMUS+ projects. This training course is ideal for: newcomers to Erasmus+ Adult Education projects- past and current beneficiaries of Erasmus+ Adult Education projects (KA1 and KA2)
