TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	Do you have a project idea that could benefit your school and students? Are you interested in applying for Erasmus+ programme but not sure where to start? If you are new to Erasmus + School programmes, looking for partners or are curious about how to work with other European schools this contact making seminar is for you. This contact making seminar is ideal for:- Teachers working directly with students on daily basis (primary and post primary)- Newcomers to Erasmus+ School Education projects - Past and current beneficiaries of Erasmus+ School Education projects (small scale partnership, KA1 and KA2)
Expected results:	This three-day contact making seminar will create opportunities for schools across Europe to connect, learn and plan future projects in any curricula. With a lower grant amounts, shorter duration and simpler administrative requirements, Small Scale Partnerships programme is ideal for less experienced organisations and newcomers to the Erasmus Plus Programme. Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand the process of creating an application for Small Scale Partnerships Action Gain first-hand experience from schools all over Europe, already participating in Erasmus+ Programme Collaborate with others on project ideas Build international connections and meet potential partners Exchange ideas and learn about European opportunities Develop project concepts
