TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	Internationalization of Education and Training - Contributions from the Erasmus+ programme: The main aim of this International Meeting is to enhance quality, to define and develop the European dimension within organizations from all sectors and to reinforce internationalization topics and other matters of common interest (such as Programme Management, Quality Assurance, Academic Recognition, etc.). This is achieved through cooperation between National Agencies, institutions, governmental authorities, and other national and international experts. Such cooperation should also involve academic associations, professional bodies, other partners of socio-economic importance in the public or private sector and, where appropriate, student organizations.
Expected results:	Cooperation within this International Meeting e is expected to lead to outcomes which will have a lasting and widespread impact on institutions in the fields concerned.
