TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	The training will be a combination of plenary session and sessions in sub-groups. During the sessions in sub-groups, we will be working on exercises. The TCA is aimed at NA staff and at beneficiaries/applicants wishing to learn more about how to develop a communication plan for KA220 Cooperation Partnerships. The training will focus on communication for enlarging impact e.g. in the form of strategic policy influencing and strategic dissemination to key external stakeholders.
Expected results:	After this training, participants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• have reflected on how communication could work within in the context of their key action</li> <li>• have analysed communication requirements for Cooperation Partnerships, including those in the new proposed delegated act</li> <li>• can develop a communication plan based on the information needs of different stakeholders</li> <li>• have practiced analysing the relevant indicators, including those of the horizontal priorities</li> </ul>
Additional information:	This TCA is open to NA staff working on KA220 communication, to beneficiaries with KA220 Cooperation Partnerships and to future applicants with some previous experience of KA220 Cooperation Partnerships (or KA2 Strategic Partnerships from the previous Erasmus+ programme). The training will take place in Bucharest from 7 until 9 October (activities will take places from Wednesday afternoon until Friday lunchtime).
