TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	This TCA aims to improve participants' competences for international, inter-institutional and school-level cooperation in order to develop projects and build connections for exchange, the improvement of educational processes and mutual learning. Through plenary sessions and workshops, the event will aim to empower teaching and non-teaching school staff to plan and activate international cooperation with the aim of improving the quality of teaching and learning. The participants will be able to exchange ideas and insights, network and build connections for potential future cooperation through Erasmus+ projects.
Expected results:	Participants understand the importance of internationalization for the development and progress of schools; Participants understand the importance of projects and project thinking for internationalization; Participants are able to plan and activate international cooperation; Participants are able to analyze their institutions' needs and define project objectives based on those needs; Participants are familiar with the opportunities within the Erasmus+ Programme for internationalization; Participants are familiar with the available tools for partner search; Participants are familiar with and know how to use eTwinning; Participants are motivated to apply gained knowledge.
Additional information:	The event will start on 27th June 09:00 CET and finish on 28th June 15:00 CET. The organiser will provide two nights in the hotel - check in 26th from 14.00h, check out 28th June until 11.00h.
