TCA DESCRIPTION

Themes and goals:	This study visit is intended for representatives of organisations holding Accreditation and newcomers in the VET sector. Its main goals are to: Facilitate the exchange of experiences and best practices among participants. Provide insight into the specific characteristics of the Turkish VET system. Support participants' professional development and inspire new approaches in their daily work. Visit Turkish schools and VET institutions to observe innovative practices and approaches. Build new partnerships that can lead to future VET projects. Observe and learn from the practices of different organisations
Expected results:	The study visit is expected to enhance participants' understanding of the Turkish VET system and strengthen their capacity to apply innovative practices within their own organisations. It will foster the exchange of ideas and experiences, leading to improved quality and inclusiveness in VET activities. Participants are also expected to establish new professional connections and develop potential partnerships for future international cooperation projects.
Additional information:	Participants are expected to cover their travel expenses initially. Reimbursement will be made afterwards in accordance with the programme rules and applicable reimbursement rates by their Sending NA. Accommodation will be covered by the Turkish NA, the accommodation will be in single rooms. Transportation throughout the study visit will be provided by Turkish National Agency. A detailed info-kit regarding the event and schedule will be sent to selected participants.
